School Sourced Information

Within this section you should find out, as appropriate, information which will support you in your planning for and teaching of this PDA:

- your subject(s), key stage curriculum areas
- relevant curriculum requirements
- appropriate teaching strategies
- abilities of the pupil(s)
- pastoral issues
- classroom management
- school policies, etc

This may be sourced from background reading, INSET courses, school-based staff development sessions, and the expertise of school colleagues or an Education Authority support officer. It may also be based on what you already know about your pupils and what else you want to find out. Where textbooks or journals etc are used, the appropriate references should be included, e.g. author, date, title, publisher, pages.

You may present information in this section in either a short piece of prose or in bullet point format

Planning for Learning

You may attach this information if you already use/have an appropriate planning pro-forma

Class, Pupil or Group(s) of Pupils

Make a factual note of the pupil(s) or group(s) of pupils within the class with whom you intend to carry out this PDA (avoid identifying individual pupils by name).

Timescale and Relationship with Scheme of Work

Where does the PDA fit into your existing plans, scheme, or unit of work?

Intended Learning Outcomes

Make a concise statement of the intended learning outcomes for pupils i.e. what you want your pupils to experience, know, understand and be able to do?

Planning and Teaching Strategies

Briefly outline what you are going to teach e.g. 4-6 weekly planner, your unit of work or thematic topic.

Make a concise note of the teaching strategies you will use. You may, for example, consider:

- AfL strategies - independent, peer and group work strategies, marking for improvement, questioning, formative feedback
- Differentiation
- Strategies to promote Thinking Skills/Personal Capabilities
- Active learning

Resources including Educational Technology

Outline the resources you will use to carry out this PDA, e.g.

- Books
- Practical resources and equipment
- Education Technology e.g. Internet, i-pad, Video, Video Conferencing, Digital Camera, Digital TV, IWB, Data Projector, PowerPoint
- Classroom Visitors

You should reference clearly how the use of Educational Technology will enhance pupil learning

Evidence You Will Use to Monitor Learner Engagement and Progress (impact of your teaching on pupils)

Record here the evidence you will collect to enable you to monitor the progress of the pupil(s).
Choose a minimum of three sources.

One source of evidence should be observation and written feedback from your recognized supporting teacher.

Other sources of evidence might include:

- evaluation of lesson plans
- pupil voice – recorded interviews (audio or video), questionnaire feedback, pupil self and peer assessment
- annotated photographic evidence of learning in progress
- examples of pupils' work
- observation/written assessments of pupil learning
- audio and video recordings of teaching
- data

Evidence

State Evidence 1	Observation feedback from your recognized supporting teacher
State Evidence 2
State Evidence 3
State any Additional Relevant Sources of Evidence

PDA Learning Log

An important aspect of the PDA is to make a brief note of key moments in your teaching which challenge you to think more critically about pupil learning and your role in the learning process.

You may wish to use the template for the PDA Learning Log on page 33 for this purpose.

My PDA and associated plans have been discussed and agreed by:	This person may be the Principal, Vice Principal, main Teacher Tutor, Key Stage Co-ordinator, Head of Department or other designated member of staff.
