

SUMMARY OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

The Conditions of Service are determined by the Joint Negotiating Committee for Youth and Community Workers.

HOURS

The full-time hours for an EA employee is 36 hours per week. Employees are required to work such hours as are necessary for the efficient discharge of the duties of the post.

REMUNERATION

Details relating to the salary scale/rate of pay are in accordance with the agreement relating to your grade. Your hours of work exclude meal breaks. The salary scale/rate of pay relating to the post is detailed on the job advertisement.

EA employees are paid by Bankers Automatic Clearing System (BACS) on a monthly or mid-monthly basis. Monthly – paid currently or mid-month in arrears. Mid monthly – paid for hours worked during the calendar month on 15th of the following calendar month e.g. payment for all hours worked on January will be paid on 15 February (or closest banking day if 15th falls on a weekend). Employees must have a current bank account and provide details prior to the first date of commencement of employment.

ANNUAL LEAVE, PUBLIC HOLIDAYS AND EXTRA-STATUTORY HOLIDAYS

In accordance with the Working Time Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1998 (as amended), all employees have a statutory entitlement to a minimum of 5.6 weeks paid holiday.

The basic annual leave entitlement is increased after 5 years' service in accordance with existing agreements.

In addition, there are normally 12 public and extra-statutory holidays in any leave year.

Employees who work less than a 5 day/36 hour week, and/or fewer than 52 weeks per annum, will have an entitlement to leave that is pro rata to the hours, days and weeks worked.

Salary range	Minimum Entitlement	After 5 years' service
Youth Workers (Youth & Community Support Workers)	30 days	35 days

The leave year extends from 1 April in one year to 31 March the following year. New entrants will be entitled to leave proportionate to the completed months of service during the first year of entry.

Employed for 52 weeks

Your annual leave entitlement is to be taken at a time that is mutually agreed between you and your Line Manager (please note that this is only applicable to those employees in receipt of an Annual Leave record sheet) In the event that the location, at which you are based, closes over a holiday period, you will be required to take annual leave accordingly.

Employed for less than 52 weeks

If you work less than 52 weeks per year you will receive a payment in respect of annual leave.

SICK PAY

The Education Authority will pay statutory sick pay (SSP) provided an employee satisfies the rules governing this payment.

Employees who work less than a 5 day/36 hour week, and/or fewer than 52 weeks per annum, will have an entitlement that is pro rata to the hours, days and weeks worked.

MATERNITY, ADOPTION, PATERNITY AND PARENTAL LEAVE

The Education Authority has Schemes in operation for the provision of Maternity, Adoption, Paternity and Parental leave. Further information is available from Human Resource Services.

PROBATIONARY PERIOD

The first 26 weeks of service is defined as the probationary period.

PENSION

The Pension Scheme provided by the Education Authority is the Local Government Pension Scheme (LGPS) (NI) which is administered by the Northern Ireland Local Government Officer's' Superannuation Committee (NILGOSC).

Membership of the Local Government Pension Scheme for Northern Ireland is available. The Education Authority will enrol you in the Scheme on a contractual basis provided your contract lasts for more than 3 months and contributions towards the scheme will be deducted from your pay. In addition, the Education Authority has a statutory obligation to automatically enrol you in the Scheme provided you meet the eligibility criteria at any time during your employment. Information and assistance on automatic enrolment and contractual enrolment is available from the Education Authority Human Resources Section.

During your period of employment if you avail of a period of unpaid authorised absence (eg career break or approved unpaid leave) pensions contributions will automatically be made as follows:-

- For 30 consecutive days or less - contributions are made to cover the period of absence;
- For 30 consecutive days or more – contributions are made for the first 30 days of absence only.

For more information on being a member of the Scheme please visit the NILGOSC website: www.nilgosc.org.uk or alternatively contact the NILGOSC office as follows:

RETIREMENT

Further information is available from Human Resource Services.

NOTICE PERIOD

The minimum period of notice employees are required to give to terminate employment is not less than 1 calendar month/4 weeks.

UNDERTAKING WORK IN ADDITION TO THIS POST

The Working Time Regulations 1998 implement a maximum working week of 48 hours and although not expressly stated within the Regulations, UK Government guidance has made clear this total applies cumulatively to all employment held by the individual, not separately to each job.

Taking the Working Time Regulations and Health and Safety obligations into consideration employees who intend to undertake or have secondary employment should notify the Resourcing Service in writing of the nature of the role, the number of hours worked and the times that the additional post/s is/are worked.

CHILD PROTECTION

The Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups (Northern Ireland) Order 2007 defines working directly with children or young people or in specified places as 'regulated activity'.

Appointment to a post defined as 'regulated activity' is subject to a satisfactory outcome of the vetting procedure, including receipt of a satisfactory Enhanced Disclosure Certificate from AccessNI which currently costs £33. Please note that successful candidates will be expected to meet the cost.

PRIVACY NOTICES

Detailed Privacy Notices are published on the EA website <https://www.eani.org.uk/about-us/privacy/ea-privacy-notices> which provide further information on how EA processes your personal information as well as detail on how to contact us if you have any questions. If you are unable to access the EA Privacy Notices, please contact Human Resources and copies will be provided.

OTHER POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Other policies and Procedures are available from Human Resource Services on request.
