

CHOICES and OPINIONS GAME

Expressing opinions and making choices is an important part of expressing yourself and being an active player in conversation and social interaction.

To play the game:

- Print and cut out the cards, write the numbers 1-6 on the back.
- Then, turn them facedown, numbers up.
- Throw the dice.
- Pick a card with the same number.
- Ask your partner the question and share your preferences and ideas.

Alternatively,

- Arrange the cut out cards on a piece of card to make a board game and make it together, sticking on and arranging the pieces, decorating it etc.

Encourage your child to make up their own questions – the possibilities are endless...

Which do you like better- bath or shower?	What's your favourite kind of sandwich?	Which do you like better- slide or swing?
What kind of holiday would you prefer: beach or skiing?	What do you like best, chocolate or jelly beans?	Which do you prefer summer or winter?
Which do you like better reading or drawing?	Which do you like better, dogs or cats?	Which do you like better, chips or mash?
Which do you like better: bike or scooter?	What is your favourite zoo animal?	What is your favourite dinner?

What is your favourite boy's name?	What is your favourite colour?	What football team do you like?
What is your favourite kind of cake?	Which do you like better, curly hair or straight?	Which do you like better: teddy or doll?
Which do you like better: Mario or Yoshi?	What's your favourite game?	What's your favourite cartoon character?
What's your favourite weather	Which do you like better: T.V. or games console?	Which would you prefer: boat trip or aeroplane?