

EA Lunch and Learn Online - FAQ

Do I Need to book?

Yes all booking can be made through Eventbrite, please click here to book.

How will this be delivered?

We will be using Microsoft Teams as that is the companies supported software for this kind of delivery

Who are these Talks for?

They are for everybody that works for EA

Will you be coming to other offices?

We will periodically review our locations and will keep consider any location that would support delivery

How long will the sessions last?

Around 30 minutes

What topics will be delivered?

The topics are as varied as the Education Authority staff. If you have something to share get in touch! Our first "menu" will be released shortly completely up to yourself.

How long will the programme run?

As long as we have Topics and presenters to deliver them!! at the moment it will be every Thursday at 12:30 from the 11th of June onward.

So feel free to come along and indulge in some "Bite" sized learning!

Want to get involved?

Do you, or anyone from your team, have a great idea for a topic that would be of interest to your EA colleagues? Remember topics can be on anything: they can be fun, they can be practical and the topic doesn't necessarily have to be about your job. We would love to hear from you.
